Welcome to the Worlds of Humongous Entertainment

Children are filled with a sense of wonder. Watch how they explore a new environment, solve problems, overcome challenges, or search to find something new. The world around them is full of discovery. Their stamina amazes us; their thirst for knowledge astounds us.

At Humongous Entertainment, our games are designed to enhance this thriving sense of wonder. We give your children control and let them explore worlds full of rich, colorful graphics, and amazing sounds and music.

Children decide how deep to dig, which way to go, and how high to climb. And they never feel alone. Our loyal cast of heart-warming characters is always there to provide support and fun.

With their friends Putt-Putt®, Freddi Fish, Pajama Sam, Buzzy the Knowledge Bug and Fatty Bear, your children will employ the full power of their imaginations as they explore the Worlds of Humongous Entertainment.

At Humongous Entertainment, we create games with fun, colorful worlds where your child is in complete control. Our games are designed with the highest quality in mind, from our hand-drawn animation to the depth and breadth of our storylines. We take pride in the games we make, and we are proud this attention to detail does not go unnoticed. In fact, here's what others are saying!
